GRAMMAR SCHOOL

MRGS News Bulletin Week ending 4th November

Nga mihi nui ki a koutou, Talofalava, Malo'elelei, Namaste, Ni Hao

Our senior prize giving was in the words of one parent "simply splendid". It was fantastic to recognise the achievement of so many students who have worked hard and achieved so well. The evening was enriched by quality music performances from the choir and the orchestra and also by a stirring welcome from our Kapahaka. New Zealand premier scholars Jordan Zi and William Quach, two of only nine students in all of New Zealand to gain the nation's top secondary school honour of Premier Scholar were recognised by the school; they also presented awards to this year's top Year 11 and Year 12 scholars. The warm recognition given to award winners created a wonderful atmosphere. Head prefects Audrey Tay and Joseph Windsor gave their farewell speeches to an appreciative audience.

Congratulations to proxime accessit Audrey Tay and dux Gloria Fraser.
