To whom it may concern

Mount Roskill Grammar School is one of the schools providing the largest number of enrolments at The University of Auckland. The students are always well prepared for Tertiary study and usually have the required academic qualifications for entry to University of Auckland degrees.

Mount Roskill Grammar School students achieve very good results across a wide range of University courses and Faculties. The School provides an excellent pathway for students aspiring to tertiary study.

Students from a variety of ethnic and social backgrounds and International students are well adjusted when they enter the University and they relate well to their peers from other schools and countries.

The University of Auckland is delighted to have a positive working relationship with Mount Roskill Grammar School.
